

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY

BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS

2 NAVY ANNEX

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20370-5100

TRG

Docket No: 4553-99

18 October 2000

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 11 October 2000. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

The Board found that you enlisted in the Marine Corps on 1 June 1973 at age 18. The record shows that during 1974 you received nonjudicial punishment on five occasions and were convicted by a special court-martial. Your offenses were six instances of disobedience, disrespect, sleeping on post and two absences from your appointed place of duty.

Your military record shows that on 3 January 1975 you submitted a written request for an undesirable discharge in order to avoid trial by court-martial for two periods of unauthorized absence totaling about 10 days and disobedience. Your record also shows that prior to submitting this request you conferred with a qualified military lawyer at which time you were advised of your rights and warned of the probable adverse consequences of accepting such a discharge. The Board found that your request was granted on 13 January 1975 and, as a result of this action, you were spared the stigma of a court-martial conviction and the potential penalties of a punitive discharge and confinement at hard labor. You were discharged on 27 January 1975.

In its review of your application the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and limited education. The Board also considered the documentation you submitted showing that there were racial and disciplinary problems in your command. You contend, in effect, that these problems made it impossible for you to adapt to the Marine Corps

The Board found that these factors and contentions were not sufficient to warrant recharacterization of your discharge given your extensive record of misconduct and especially your request for discharge to avoid trial for the offenses. The Board believed that even if there were problems at your command, they did not excuse you from obeying orders and being present for duty. The Board believed that considerable clemency was extended to you when your request for discharge to avoid trial by court-martial was approved since, by this action, you escaped the possibility of confinement at hard labor and a punitive discharge. Further, the Board concluded that you received the benefit of your bargain when your request for discharge was granted and you should not be permitted to change it now. The Board concluded that your discharge was proper as issued and no change is warranted.

Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
